

Volunteer

Applications for volunteer opportunities are available at the reference desk. Community service credit may be earned for Bright Futures, Honor Society, etc.

Opportunities for service:

Book sale: call the library to find out how to help set up and pack up books for the Friends of the Library book sales in April and October, weekdays and/or weekends.

Reading Buddies: play reading games and read with younger students. Most Thursday afternoons from 4:00 to 4:45 pm.

Adopt-a-Shelf: be responsible for keeping in order certain shelves of books.

What's New?

Teen Advisory Group

Do you want to have a say about what happens at your library? Do you have an idea for a program? What do you want to see at your library? Or do you just need an hour of community service?

Here's what we plan to do:

- Design and write "Teen News"
- Make suggestions for movies, books and CDs to add to the library collection
- Decide on types of upcoming programs that you would like to see at the library
- Have fun!

Come on down to the library on a select Monday every month from 7:45-8:45 pm.

The dates are listed below:

- February 15
- March 15

One hour of community service

(per meeting) will be awarded to participants, so remember to bring your paperwork.

Reading Buddies

Our great reading buddies program takes place on Thursday afternoons from 4:00—4:30 p.m.. Earn service hours and have fun at the same time!

New Ideas?

Suggestions?

Just let us know! Come and say hello to our youth services librarian and our assistant public services librarian, Pat, and let them know what you want to see at the library. We need your input to make this library a place you want to visit!

IT OUT!

Look at what the library has to offer. And the best part? It's free with your library card!

Teen Book Club

Go to www.maitlandpubliclibrary.org and click on the "Online Book Clubs" link. Simply enter your email address and select the types of books that would interest you. Everyday, Monday through Friday, you will receive in an email a five minute selection from a chapter of a book. By the end of the week, you will have read a chapter or two from the beginning of a book. If you like the book, come on over to the library and check it out!
